

Restorative Justice Youth Training

Tuesday, March 9th, 5:00—8:00 PM

Social Development Commission

4041 N. Richards Street

Community Conferencing is a restorative justice based program for nonviolent offenders aimed at repairing the harm inflicted by crime, restoring a sense of community and providing an alternative to incarceration. This training for Safe Place youth will allow participation in actual criminal cases that involve offenders, victims, other youth and community members. It is an invaluable skill to learn and can greatly benefit the surrounding community as well as personal growth and understanding of the impacts of crime.

Questions? Contact Erin Katzfey with the DA's Community Conferencing Program at 278-4632 or Aaron Edwards with Safe & Sound Community Partners at 414-221-6706.

Space is limited. To RSVP call Diana Rodriguez at (414) 221-6700 by 4:00, Friday, March 5th

